Race #22 Indy Oval

I beleive NASCAR races at Indy to be a part Indy's long history. Every time a racecar hits the Indy track, history is made. From the 1st Brickyard to now, winners and their stories are repeated and in the Indy History Books.

The #77 winning the pole, at least for the SGI SUTO GLASS Challenge, is just one history conversation, the other is the winning #67. NO ONE in our Challenge Series except one Youth Player picked the #77 and the #67 did not even exist in Janyrary, A few of the top ten finishers of the race were dark horse picks at best.

The racing, the only excitement were the restarts, then single file wishing for another restart. Not complaining so much as looking at the challenges each team has to deal with at each track each week and the uniqueness that Indy brings. The #67 played their strategy perfectly, Indy being a strategy race, it's what that track brings. The best team won.

The top 7 scored and stay the course. It was a hard day on some of our favorite picks.

In last place, Emma Brock from the Melrude Whistle Stop Bar in Melrude does what last place players do, look for sympathy beers. Good Luck Emma.

Lori Stocke don't look to smug. You could be next.

2 races left until the next SGI AUTO GLASS $50 payout. The leader will be awarded.

Get that momentum going for the $50 Gift Card.

We have a week off Enjoy
